LARGE ENGINES RUN TOGETHER

Big Four and C. H. & D. Mixup at the Crossing of Tracks In This City.

THE TRAINMEN ESCAPE INJURY

Crews Differ in Their Stories—Traffic on Roads is Tied up Several Hours.

Traffic on the Big Four, C. H. & D. and Lake Erie is tied up as the result of two freights running together at the intersection of the Lake Erie and the C. H. & D. tracks shortly after one o'clock this afternoon. Big Four through freight No. 75, coming south carrying a heavy load, and an engine on the C. H. & D., pulling three cars smashed together and both engines were derailed and badly damaged. The C. H. & D. engine struck the Big Four engine just back of the cow catcher. Both engines were of the large Mogul type. Nobody was hurt.

Wrecking crews were ordered from Connersville and Anderson and it is thought traffic will be opened up by six o'clock this evening. It is probable that the Big Four trains will be held until the track is clear. It was thought that arrangements would be made to transfer passengers on C. H. & D. trains and allow east-bound trains to go back to Indianapolis, and west-bound trains to go back to Cincinnati.

Engineer Hardy was in charge of the Big Four train, and Engineer Nolte in charge of the C. H. & D. engine. The stories of the two crews differ, but the prevailing opinion of those who saw the accident seems to be that the C. H. & D. engineer could have avoided the accident. The C. H. & D. engineers say they did not hear the Big Four whistle, and that they whistled. They say they had just picked up a car off the siding and were running slow when they saw the Big Four train. The engineer reversed, put on the emergency and jumped. The fireman did not have time to jump as he was on the side away from the wreck. It seems that there is enough clear space allowing a good view to prevent a smash-up if proper care had been exercised.

"It seems to me that you could have seen the Big Four in time to have stopped since you had only a light train and were not, as you say, going fast," was a statement made to a member of the C. H. & D. crew.

"Well all we had time to do was to reverse and jump, and then we could not prevent the wreck. I did not hear the Big Four whistle," was the reply.

A member of the Big Four crew says the C. H. & D. did not whistle for the crossing, and that the train was going at a good rate. He said the C. H. & D. men could have seen the freight a lot sooner if they had been looking. He said the Big Four whistled and had the crossing. All trains are supposed to stop before passing over the crossing and two or three who saw the accident say that the Big Four did not stop entirely as the switch to the Lake Erie main track had been opened for them.

Several smash-ups have occurred at this crossing although none of them have been serious. However, it is thought that this one will result in the establishment of an interlocking switch, just as the smash-up at the C. H. & D. and J. M. & I. crossing did a few years ago.

PROJECT SOON TO BE A REALITY

Everything Points to Fact That the Immense Auditorium Will be Built in City Park.

BY THIS TIME NEXT YEAR

Ministers Are Ready to Sign Contract With Big Evangelist For Fall Union Meeting.

If all plans materialize, Rushville will have a large structure erected in the city park to be used for all public gatherings. The idea has long been favorably considered in this city and as the time is now ripe to act it is very probable that something of a tangible form will be done in a very short time.

After the ministers all return from their summer vacations they will make some arrangements for a big union meeting to be held here this fall. One of the ministers stated yesterday that they had been in correspondence with a prominent evangelist, who was second to none only Billy Sunday, and would probably sign a contract with him soon.

The plan of providing the money to pay for such a structure is simple and has been worked in many other cities. The money has to be guaranteed by local people before the building is erected and then the evangelist agrees to come here and during the course of a protracted meeting raise enough money to pay for the building. The ministers and also laymen are enthusiastic over the project and believe that it can be carried out with ease.

It is planned to get a committee of laymen from each church to work in connection with the ministers. The union protracted meeting for Rushville would not only promote a spirit of co-operation, but would also promote a good cause and get for the city what has long been wished for—a place where public meetings of all kinds may be held.

The many advantages to be derived from such a structure have been recited many times and are well known. Such a building could be used for the chautauqua and thus make it a permanent institution in this county, when the loss from rain and the tent hire could be done away with. And beyond these are the advantages to be gained in drawing not only State meetings of various organizations but also some possibility of attracting a Sixth district convention. The city park offers an excellent site and everything points to the fact that an immense auditorium will stand there this time next year.

AIR OF MYSTERY ABOUT HIS STORY

D. Z. Williams Received Gash on Lip,
But Will Not Tell How it Happened.

TOOK SIX STITCHES TO SEW UP

Was Working in Corn Field and Came to House About Noon With the Wound.

There is an air of mystery about the accident which occurred to D. Z. Williams at his home, one-half mile south of Orange, this morning. He came to the house with a deep gash in his lip, which required six stitches to sew up, and does not know, or at any rate, will not tell the manner in which he received it.

Williams had been working with a one-horse cultivator in the corn field near the house all morning and came up about noon with the wound on his upper lip. The first thought of his family was that he had been kicked by a horse, but he denied that and said that it was impossible for him to be kicked by a horse, yet he intimated that he knew the cause of the trouble but would not state it.

A physician was immediately called and took six stitches in the gash before it was sewed up. He was unable to learn the cause of the injury as Williams was very reticent and would just say that he knew a horse did not do it, because it was impossible, and refused to state exactly how it all happened.

The wound had every appearance of being caused by a jagged instrument of some kind. It is the supposition that he was struck by something and some are inclined to believe that there is another party in the affair since Williams will not give the cause of the injury, when he must know, as he was not hurt bad enough to be unconscious.

If the horse had kicked him he would be very willing to acknowledge it and for this reason this story is not given much credence. It is thought that there is another man in the affair and that Williams will not give out the story. Drs. Sipe and Phillips of Orange attended the injured man.

THEY ALL WANT ABE MARTIN NOW

Lyceums After Kin Hubbard Since
His Work in Rushville Has Become Known.

ASKS FOR A RECOMMENDATION

Philosopher of Indianapolis News
May be Platform Man in Spite of Bashfulness.

That Kin Hubbard may become a rich man in spite of his wishes seems probable and it is all the result of his visit to the Rushville chautauqua. Lyceums all over the country are after him, since they heard that he drew five thousand people at the local chautauqua. Hubbard said after he had recovered from his stage fright that he would not go on the stage again for $5000 a minute with a marine band playing to cheer him up. However, some of the tempting offers he has received may change his mind it is thought.

J. A. Tittsworth, chairman of the program committee of the Rushville chautauqua, received a letter today from C. B. Stevenson, stage manager of the Mutual Lyceum Bureau of Chicago, stating that the bureau was after Hubbard and that he was to have a conference with the original Abe Martin this evening. Mr. Stevenson asked for an opinion of Mr. Hubbard's work here and of his power to draw a crowd. The management has sent back a high recommendation, with the explanation that this was his first appearance on the stage and that some embarrassment hindered Mr. Hubbard's work here.

And so Abe Martin, heretofore the philosopher of the Indianapolis News, may also become a platform man of national reputation. And all because he got his start in Rushville.

HAY FEVER BEGINS TO CAUSE TROUBLE

General Exodus to Northern Lakes is the Order of Things—Season
Early This Year.

GROWTH IS VERY LUXURIANT.

Already the hay fever patients have begun to make themselves known and the exodus to the northern lakes has already started. The physicians say that the much-dreaded disease will be much more noticeable and much more general this year because the growth is very luxuriant. For this reason the trouble began a little earlier than common this season, as it is hardly ever noticeable before August 15th. The pollen on the ragweed is the thing that causes the trouble, and it is now beginning to fly in the air.

COUNTY SOLD COURT HOUSE

Fifteen Dollars Was All It Would Bring.

ONLY ONE BID WAS RECEIVED

Temple of Justice Erected at Lebanon in 1857 Was in Its Day Accounted One of the Best Buildings in Indiana, but When It Came Time to Sell It There Was No Market—Men Who Bid It in Must Take It Away at Once to Make Way For Handsome New Courthouse.

Lebanon, Ind., Aug. 17.—Boone county sold her old courthouse at public sale preparatory to letting the contract for a new $250,000 building. Although 500 people were present, the auctioneer received only one bid, that of Miller & Wyson, to whom the house was knocked down at $15, on condition that they clear the ground within forty-five days.

The county reserved the furniture, the Liberty cap stone on the south gable, the corner stone and the lettered stone over the west entrance. The old building was completed in 1857 at a cost of $33,000, and was at that time regarded as one of the best courthouses in Indiana. Four of the old seats in the courtroom were sold to relic hunters and brought more than the building.

TIPTON BANK OPEN

Institution Looted by Marker Again Doing Business.

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 17.—The First National bank, looted by Noah Marker, its cashier, to the extent of $105,000, is now open for business, and the people of this city are wondering what the outcome of the government's probe into the affairs of the bank will be. Further developments are expected, but hardly before the federal grand jury meets in Indianapolis in October. Agents of the department of justice are busy in Tipton, keeping men who have been connected with the bank under surveillance and gathering evidence for the district attorney's office. The district attorney is being kept informed constantly of what is going on in Tipton.

The question as to whether the bank's funds were used in an illegal way and whether others besides Noah Marker had a hand in directing the funds of the bank into the channels through which they went is now occupying the government agents. It is confidently expected here that the probe of the grand jury will bring some distinct revelations.

Reformatory Chaplain Resigns.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Aug. 17.—The Rev. R. H. Moore, chaplain at Indiana reformatory, has handed in his resignation to Major David S. Peyton, general superintendent, but will remain until his successor has been appointed. Mr. Moore will seek a new assignment from the Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church when that body meets next month.

Child Killed by Lightning.

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 17.—Alice Roach, four years old, while clapping her hands over a joke she had played on an older sister, was stricken to death at her home near Courtland by a bolt of lightning. The bolt that killed the child felled two older sisters to the floor unconscious and tore a large hole in the house.

Rally Day For Hoosiers.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 17.—Indiana's governor, Thomas R. Marshall, is expected to deliver the address on Thursday afternoon of this week. Thursday will be Indiana day and the Winona management is making every effort to make it rallying day for Hoosiers.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 17.—Harry Piqueno, aged fourteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Piqueno, was probably fatally injured when he fell twenty feet from an oak tree at his home, crushing his chest, breaking his shoulders and resulting in concussion of the brain.

He Made Death Certain.

Fairfield, Ill., Aug. 17.—Strapping his hands securely behind him, Prof. Alva Willis, a teacher of Charleston, Ill., committed suicide by jumping into a well. Ill health is supposed to have caused him to become temporarily deranged.

Held on Serious Charge.

Calro, Ill., Aug. 17.—Henry Salsener, a photographer, is in jail here charged by his wife with attempting to murder her with an ax. She was found badly wounded.

HASKELL CHARGES JURY CONSPIRACY

Defendants Ask That Indictments Be Quashed.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 17.—A motion has been filed in the federal court here by attorneys for Governor Chas. N. Haskell and the five other defendants indicted in connection with the Muskogee town lot frauds, to quash the indictments, setting forth a number of sensational allegations. Aside from charges against five grand jurors and the allegation of improper conduct on the part of United States Marshal Grant Victor, the allegations deal largely with the selection of the grand jury with especial objection to the exclusion of Muskogee county, the home of the defendants, from the territory from which the jury was chosen.

It is alleged that certain members of the grand jury which indicted the defendants deliberately sought to go on that jury with a view of returning indictments; that Strawn, as foreman, conspired to intimidate the other jurors into voting indictments after they had refused to do so.

The motion insists that Foreman Strawn repeatedly told the jurors that they probably would be charged with perjury if they failed to indict, and at one time, when the ballot stood eight to eight, he called for an open vote, so he would know who should be prosecuted.

It is alleged that out of eight talesmen selected, seven were partisan Republicans and the eighth, a bitter personal enemy of Governor Haskell, is a Democrat. After pointing out numerous technicalities in the manner and time of the grand jury selection, the motion declares there was no evidence presented to show a conspiracy to defraud, and that the secretary of the interior and all of the departments in the Indian territory were fully aware of how the town lots were scheduled and that no objection was raised.

FULL TRAIN CREW LAW

Has Been Taken to Supreme Court for an Interpretation.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The constitutionality of the state law of Indiana requiring passenger trains to be equipped with crews of five men and freight crews of six men is called into question in the case of the State of Indiana vs. the Big Four Railroad company, which has been docketed in the supreme court of the United States.

The company contends that the law interferes with interstate commerce and that it therefore is in contravention of the federal constitution. The supreme court of Indiana upheld the statute.

Persch Held to Answer.

New York, Aug. 17.—Two indictments for grand larceny have been returned by the grand jury against Donald L. Persch, the note broker who is now under $50,000 bail in the Toms prison under charges in connection with the sale of collateral deposits by M. M. Joyce, a broker, for a loan negotiated through the Windsor Trust company.

His "Lark" Turned Out Well.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 17.—Joseph F. Ray of Warsaw, Ind., who drew No. 1 in the Flathead land distribution, is apparently not excited over his good fortune, although he had been informed that his allotment is worth $50,000. He registered for all three drawings on his way west "just for a lark," he says.

SAIL O'ER SEAS IN MY AIRSHIP

Wright Brothers, the Most Successful and Daring Aviators Say it is Possible.

GREAT HIGHWAY IN THE AIR

May be Taken Advantage of and Passages to and Fro Across Ocean Will Come to Pass.

Shall we go to Europe by balloon? Yes, say the Wrights, the most daring and successful navigators of the air which the world has yet produced.

Yes, says H. Helm Clayton, America's most distinguished meteorologist, who has for sixteen years made a careful study of upper air currents. Not only may we go, taking advantage of what has become known to meteorologists as "the great highway of the air," but we may return, for this highway is not a one way route, but issues return tickets to all who will study its schedules and take advantage of them with the proper equipment. The rails of this vast circuit road of the upper air are laid, so to speak, even the motive power is provided; the knowledge of the schedules has been furnished us by Professor Clayton and other careful scientific observers; the only remaining need is the safe and sure equipment for reaching this upper air current and staying in it until the desired point is reached, and men daring enough to trust their lives to the first voyage and thus point the way to thousands of eager followers.

In other words, a balloon several miles high at the latitude of Boston, finds a wind blowing from west to east which is as dependable as the motion of the earth itself, which will whisk it across 3000 miles of sea at a rate of speed far exceeding that of the swiftest ocean liner. At a point near the equator it would find an equally steady return current which would waft it at equal speed back to America. With a dirigible, capable of seeking favorable local winds or proceeding against moderately unfavorable ones to traverse the space from England to the Canary Islands or from Key West to Boston it can be seen that a circuit would be established which would have great possibilities, even to the revolutionizing of the passenger service between this country and Europe.

LOYAL TO GREECE

Cretans Take Oath of Allegiance to King George.

Canea, Island of Crete, Aug. 17.—The provisional administrative committee to which the administration of the island was intrusted when the Cretan cabinet resigned Sunday, has taken the oath of allegiance to the king and kingdom of Greece.

The action of the provisional administration committee in Crete in swearing allegiance to Greece apparently indicates that it is not its intention to meet the demands of the protecting powers to haul down the Greek flag, and that therefore the powers will again be forced to land troops to insure the autonomy of the island.

WHIRLPOOL RAPIDS CLAIMS ANOTHER

Brave Boy's Battle Against Invincible Odds.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 17.—After a gallant battle with the giant waves between the lower bridges and the pool, August Sporer, an eighteen-year-old boy of this city, went to his death in the whirlpool rapids.

With three companions Sporer went for a swim in the river at the former Maid of the Mist landing. He struck out at once for the middle of the stream and then turned toward the bridges. His companions called to him to turn back, but the current is very swift at that point, and he kept on down stream and was caught in the great sweep, the first break from the smoother waters to the rapids.

The boy struggled for a time against the current, but to no avail. Then realizing that he was beyond human help and was to be carried through the rapids which took the life of Captain Webb and which have resisted every unaided human effort at passage, he deliberately turned down stream and began a grim fight for life.

Not in all the history of the river has such a brave effort been witnessed. Although but a frail boy, he went into the rapids swimming strongly and held his own until he struck the giant wave which curls up opposite the old battery elevator. Then he went under and for a second was lost to sight of the score of persons who stood on the lower arch bridge.

Again and again he disappeared, only to reappear each time fighting desperately against the terrible current. Then when within 300 yards of the whirlpool, his strength gave out and he sank and was lost to view. Even then he had swum perhaps 100 yards farther than did the great English swimmer, Captain Webb.

The body can now be seen in the whirlpool, where river men are waiting for it to be brought in toward shore far enough to be recovered.

Rushville Will!

After a long, tedious session Congress has at last passed the Payne tariff bill and President Taft has signed the same, editorializes the Noblesville Ledger. It was a most difficult job. With the diverse industries and interests of the country it is no wonder that there was a diversity of opinion among the law makers. The questions at issue were not so much of principle as of mere rates and schedules. Protection and free trade doctrines were not discussed. The main contention was on certain schedules, such as the rates on iron ore, lumber, hides, cotton, coal, etc. Senators from the South, free traders or tariff for revenue only in theory, voted for protection to their interests. Senators from the North, protectionists in profession, voted for free lumber, hides, etc. Even on the final vote on the bill, seven Republicans voted against it. Among these was Senator Beveridge of Indiana. Party lines were loosely drawn. Democrats voted their individual sentiments as reflected by their respective districts. And so did Republican Senators. But for so doing none will be read out of their party. Rather will they gain the respect and confidence of the people for showing their courage and independence. In fact, it is a good sign when great economic problems are before our legislative bodies that the members thereof think for themselves and vote as their conscience directs, and as their constituents would have them vote. This rule has been adopted more in this special session than in any in the history of Congress.

The Payne bill is a Republican measure and is a protection document. It does not please everybody, but no bill ever did. It is probably too extreme in its protective features to suit certain sections of the country—particularly the Middle West. For that reason Senators from these States were justified in voting against it. But they are nevertheless Republicans and protectionists, and will be honored and endorsed for their manly courage and independence. When we realize that our great progress and prosperity have been largely brought about by our protective system, we must admit that it is better to err a little on the side of protection than to cripple our industries and deplete the public treasury by going too far towards free trade.

There is not a great deal of difference between the rates in the Dingley and Payne bills, but there was no need of radical changes in the former law. Many things have been put on the free list, and rates lowered that will stimulate industry and cheapen the products to the consumer. Some rates have been raised, but these are on luxuries which are bought by the rich and can afford to pay the tax. Under the new law it is firmly believed that the country will enter upon an era of unsurpassed prosperity.

BY THE WAYSIDE

The sanitary system of doing things has worked its way into every class of business and it is now to be found in the grocery business. Water is boiled to kill germs and why not boil eggs for the same purpose? Someone has evidently had this idea in their head as one woman in this city was so unfortunate as to receive a hard boiled egg from the grocery. She immediately informed her grocer and he gave her a good one in exchange for it. But this is not all the misfortune which fell to her lot. A few days afterwards she received two eggs which contained young chicks and she immediately telephoned the groceryman that she had ordered eggs and not "fries" even if she was getting them at a reduced price.

THREE-POUND TOMATOES.

(Richmond Palladium.)

Josiah B. Gilbert, of Richmond, has raised some tomatoes that are really wonders. The vines are now 14 feet high and still growing. It is stated by Mr. Gilbert that they will in all probability attain a height of 20 feet before the summer is over. The tomatoes are of the giant variety and are magnificent specimens. They grow in clusters of eight or nine, and it is estimated that over fifteen bushels will be produced from the five vines. The largest tomato is twelve inches in circumference and weighs over two and a half pounds. A tomato was recently picked from this vine which weighed three pounds, it is said. The tomatoes are attracting a great deal of attention and are claimed to be the finest ever grown in this vicinity.

Mrs. Garvin received two squash seeds from a friend in South Africa and she planted them at her home. One of them did not come up, and now she is glad it did not, else her home would have been submerged, and in fact it is threatened to become submerged as it is, for the plant that did come up has spread all over the yard and is now climbing on the roof of the summer kitchen.

ESCAPES HEAVY BOLT.

(Greenfield Tribune.)

Charles Matlock, who lives on Edgar Tom's farm on route one, had a narrow escape from almost sure death from lightning Sunday afternoon. When the rain came up he went to his wind pump, which stands within a few feet of his house, to lock the chain and stop the pump. The gearing was caught, however, and he had some trouble. When it began to rain hard he stepped back under the eaves of the house. He had just stepped away from the steel pump frame when a bolt of lightning struck a telephone pole and ran down a wire to the pump, blackening the steel all about where Mr. Matlock was working. Mr. Matlock was holding a wrench in his hand and his hand and his arm was paralyzed for half an hour from the shock. He was glad to escape as he did, however.

PLAN PARK AT WILLIAM'S CREEK

President Henry, of I. & C., Looks With Favor on Proposition Made by Owner of Land.

SUGGESTED TO HIM BEFORE.

Impressed with Idea and Hopes to Accomplish Something of the Sort Eventually.

When the I. & C. traction line was being built to Connersville, there was some talk of a park on the banks of Williams Creek, near the mammoth fill, says the Connersville News. The many advantages of such a resort and the excellent site afforded by a part of the Wilson Ball farm, lying east of the creek and north of the traction line, received some passing discussion, but no definite step toward establishing the resort was taken until the last few days. Early this week, Mr. Ball, owner of several hundred acres of land in the neighborhood of the Williams Creek fill, met Charles L. Henry, president of the traction line at Indianapolis, and together they discussed the proposition at length. Mr. Henry was much impressed with Mr. Ball's accurate description of the territory and stated that the establishment of a park in that vicinity had been suggested to him before, and that he hoped to accomplish something of the sort eventually.

Without committing himself by any definite promise, he left Mr. Ball with the distinct impression that by the time the line was extended to Hamilton, a magnificent park would exist on the banks of Williams Creek, ready for pleasure seekers from the east and the west.

The body of land comprising about one hundred acres, which will probably be converted into the new resort, contains a variety of landscapes which is truly remarkable. There are groves of magnificent trees of many kinds, there are brooks fed by perennial springs of excellent water, there are hillsides where the rocks jut out with Alpine ruggedness and here and there are vinecovered thickets that lend a sort of tropic aspect to the scene. It is safe to say that the natural advantages of the territory are such that a reasonable expenditure of money would transform it into one of the grandest parks in Indiana.

The Palace offers an exceptionally good program tonight in "Children's Practical Jokes" and "The Haunted House." Both subjects are excellent in reproduction and are sure to please. Miss Iva Brown will sing "Dancing Sunshine."

Large crowds were attracted to the Star-Grand theater last night that a Biograph film would be shown. The two subjects, "His Duty" and "Eradicating Aunt" offered a well-balanced program. The first depicted a story of real human pathos and the second was a very amusing picture. The same program will be used tonight. Earl Robertson will sing "I Wonder Why I Think so Much of You."

The annual fair dance will be given in the Kramer Colliseum on Thursday evening of fair week. Lewis Frazee has charge of the dance and has planned to make it a very elaborate affair. The hall will be beautifully decorated and everything done to make it one of the most enjoyable social events of the past few months. Invitations are being sent to the young people of surrounding cities and a large crowd of visitors is expected. An orchestra from Cincinnati has been contracted for to furnish the music.

IS FAST RECOVERING.

Havens Frazee, who was slightly injured on the chautauqua grounds Sunday evening, is fast recovering. The young lad says that he was pulling on a piece of bark and fell under the horses.

DEFENDERS WIN FIRST "BLOOD"

Sixteen "Killed" In Sortie of Gen. Bliss's Scouts.

DECISIVE BATTLE IMMINENT

By Skillful Maneuvering the Army of Invasion Has Gained a Position Which Gives It a Decided Advantage, but Which Invites Attack, and Today May Witness a General Engagement of the Two Forces—A Sortie in Force by the Invaders Brilliantly Repulsed by Defenders.

Rock Station, Mass., Aug. 17.—The two forces are in very close touch with each other for the first time since the beginning of the war game between the army of the Red and the army of the Blue. A general engagement seems not improbable today.

The situation follows a day which proved eventful as deciding on which side of the group of lakes north of New Bedford General Tasker H. Bliss, commanding the Red army, would make his advance. While he sent the Tenth cavalry and the Fourteenth New York infantry toward Myricks station on the extreme west, this movement was only a feint and the real advance was along the eastern end of the line, placing the headquarters of the commander-in-chief about four miles southeast of Middleboro, a most strategic position.

In this position General Bliss is so situated that he still may have a chance to move his army quickly around Assawonset lake past Watch-hill, and then swing his full strength against General William A. Pew's Blue force on the latter's right wing, or he may even attempt to turn the right in upon itself.

The advance of the Red army was over a distance of about seven miles for the main body, although some of the troops had a much longer march than that. As a result of the forward movement, most of the forces of General Bliss are concentrated around Rock Station and Middleboro. In this forward movement the scouts of the two armies had several brief encounters in the vicinity of Middleboro.

There was a conflict between a mixed patrol of cavalymen from Squadron A of New York and the Essex troop of New Jersey, and a detachment of District of Columbia bicycle scouts, representing the invaders and a portion of the Eighth Massachusetts infantry on outpost duty for the defense. This resulted in the "killing" of ten cavalymen and six infantrymen, according to the umpire. It was merely a skirmish and at its close the two scouting parties fell back to their supporting bodies.

Just to the north of this point six Blue scouts were captured by a cavalry advance, a mixed patrol made up of members of several commands. Without knowing it, this mixed patrol was within a very short distance of a strong force of Blue infantry, which was marching toward Middleboro. It was said by one of the umpires that had the Red cavalymen been sufficiently alert they could have located this body of Blue infantry and could have sent an orderly back to the main cavalry body, about a mile in the rear, and a strong force would have been hurried around by way of the Green to cut off the Blues, a very important capture.

Before they were ordered to fall back to the rear, the scouts of Captain Ryan of the mixed cavalry captured about forty privates of the Blue scouting parties and outposts. These prisoners, however, were later recaptured by the Blues and two Red scouts with them. The Blue outposts followed up the retreating cavalry patrols so closely that they caught two Red troopers and a Blue soldier prisoner.

Coming to Attack Boston.
Boston, Aug. 17.—The field of the war game now being played in southeastern Massachusetts became considerably enlarged when it was announced that a theoretical fleet of battleships and smaller war craft was on its way to assist the invading army of the Red, by a series of night attacks on the Boston harbor defenses.

Children Caught on Crossing.
St. Louis, Aug. 17.—Five children of A. P. Hyde, a farmer, were killed in a collision between a St. Louis & San Francisco train and a wagon in which they were riding. The accident occurred at a crossing ten miles north of Kennett, Mo., near the Hyde home.

Shippy's Successor Named.
Chicago, Aug. 17.—Mayor Busse has appointed Leroy T. Steward, superintendent of city delivery of mails in the Chicago postoffice, as chief of police, to succeed George M. Shippy, resigned. Steward is forty-seven years old.

Calhoun Case Drags Along.
San Francisco, Aug. 17.—The fifth week of the trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, accused of attempted bribery, is in progress with only two tentative jurors in the box.

SWEDISH STRIKERS SLOWLY SUBSIDING

Attempt to Involve Farm Laborers Failed.

Stockholm, Aug. 17.—A demonstration which had been arranged by the strikers was prohibited by the police. The attempt to force the agricultural workers to strike and to refuse to harvest the crops has proved a failure. Hotel proprietors are appealing to the military governor of the city for permission to supply alcoholic liquors to guests who take substantial meals in their places, on the ground that the prohibitions against such service is seriously affecting their trade. All the newspapers throughout the country are now appearing as usual.

HISTORIC MEETING

Will Be That of President Diaz and President Taft.

Mexico City, Aug. 17.—That President Diaz will meet President Taft next October is now officially admitted by Minister of Foreign Affairs Mariscal, that official stating that all details of the historic event had been arranged with the exception of the granting of the permission to President Diaz to leave Mexican soil.

The foreign minister added that the Mexican congress would convene on Sept. 15 and that immediately after President Diaz had read his annual message he would ask the necessary permission to visit El Paso. The minister said there was little doubt but what this would be immediately granted.

LION SONG FOR ROOSEVELT.

Hears Miss Shooter of "Nairobi Folies" Celebrate His Prowess.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt heard his prowess as a lion killer celebrated in song and sketch at the entertainment given a few nights ago by the "Nairobi Folies," which Mr. Roosevelt and his son Kermit attended as the guests of his excellency F. J. Jackson, C. G. C. M. C., acting governor, as an evening's diversion after dining at Government House in Nairobi, British East Africa. The topical songs dealing with Mr. Roosevelt were a feature of the occasion, and at each allusion made to himself Colonel Roosevelt's laugh rang out above the applause and the laughter of the rest of the audience.

The song describing Colonel Roosevelt's lion hunting was sung by Miss Shooter in the course of a sketch entitled "A Tale of the Chase." It ran as follows:

FELIS LEO.
A lion lurked in his lonely lair,
As African lions do,
For he liked to be where he could get a share
Of a nice little buck with a slice of luck.
In our wonderful nature zoo
His large inside he nightly fed with zebra
Or hartbeest instead.
"There isn't a scrap of doubt," said he,
"This diet's exceedingly good for me,
For I grow fat, fat, fatter.
What on earth does it eat, mat, matter
If the way that I creep on the beasts in their sleep
Makes the poor things scat, scat, scatter?"
He hunted game in the moonshine bright,
With never a thought of harm,
But he got quite a fright when there
hoved in sight
Teddy armed to the teeth with a knife in sheath
And a rifle beneath his arm.
The colonel plugged him, with a laugh,
While Kermit took his photograph.
Said he: "Those Wall street boys would cry
If they knew now near I'd been to die.
Oh, this country's bull, bull, bully!
I've enjoyed it full, full, fully,
For it eures the best they can show in the west,
That's so wild and wool, wool, woolly."

CHANGE IN ROAD SEEMS CERTAIN

C. H. & D. Officials Believe That the Deal With the B. & O. is Now Practically Assured.

CHANGES HERE NOT PROBABLE

Through Train Service to Chicago Will Remain Same, But Name of Line May Change.

It is now understood among the local C. H. & D. officials and employees to be but a matter of a few days until the road will pass into the control of the Baltimore & Ohio, says the Indianapolis News. The obstacles that arose are being overcome and it is now asserted in New York that the plan to turn the C. H. & D. over to the B. & O. will shortly be declared operative.

Early last week stockholders of both roads ratified the proposition, but it was not made immediately operative because the necessary assents of a sufficient number of the holders of the 4 1/2 per cent collateral trust notes had not been received. Within the last few days, however, it is stated, deposits of these notes under the plan have been sufficiently large to warrant the committee in taking steps for consummating the transaction.

The C. H. & D. men stationed in Indianapolis believe there will be no local changes and it is certain that the transfer of control will not affect the through Chicago-Cincinnati passenger service which is vital to both systems meeting in Indianapolis. It is generally taken for granted that the C. H. & D. system will remain for a while, at least, under the present name, but it is expected that slowly the name C. H. & D. will disappear as the name Big Four did, and that the B. & O. will take its place as "New York Central" supplanted "C. C. & St. L."

A Dreadful Pain in the Head

is not the only sign of defective eyesight. Nervousness, loss of sleep, indigestion are some of the disagreeable consequences of eye strain. However, there is an almost unerring remedy for such a condition—a pair of well fitted glasses. Remember it is more important to have glasses fit your vision than to have your clothes fit your form. WE FEEL INCLINED TO WINK when we hear a woman say her family are not big bread eaters. We know she will talk differently after she has tried the kind of bread we bake. Instead of being poor bread eaters they will make a loaf of ours disappear like magic. Get your family to taste it. The only complaint you will hear is that you didn't buy enough.
